

ASPnet Bi-Weekly Info Flash N°1

CALL FOR PARTICIPATION: Endangered Beauty: Capturing the Value of World Heritage in a Changing Climate

- The Korean National Commission for UNESCO is launching the International Photo Essay contest to capture the essence of UNESCO World Heritage sites in the context of the climate crisis. Participate in this International Photo Essay Contest to foster global citizenship through World Heritage.
- Deadline for registering schools: [20th September 2024] . Registration should be made by a Focal Point at the relevant UNESCO Associated School via the Google link: <https://forms.gle/R7L3ekD1R6Ymgc4cA>
- For More information: Visit the official website https://enasp.unesco.or.kr/essay_contest/submission.html for detailed guidelines and submission forms. If you have any questions, please contact the Korean National Commission for UNESCO. Person in Charge: Ms. Haejae Debbie Oh (Senior Programme Specialist / Division of Network Programme) Email: hjoh@unesco.or.kr / Phone: +82-2-6958-4120

INFORMATION SHARING: Ages of Globalization: A free multidisciplinary course for students ages 14 and up

- The UN Sustainable Development Solutions Network, the Centre for Sustainable Development at Columbia University, Mission 4.7, SDGsToday and the Global Schools Program are inviting ASPnet schools to join the beta release of the Ages of Globalization, a free multidisciplinary course designed to prepare learners from around the world to tackle today's complex sustainable development challenges.
- Registrations are open to all interested schools: Register for the Info Session on 4 September here & Register your interest to take the course here. For more information, please contact agesofglobalization@gmail.com.

Contact

This bi-weekly Info Flash is published by the Unit for ASPnet of UNESCO. Please share your ideas and tell us about your main events by sending an email to ASPnet@unesco.org and p.zhong@unesco.org.