「私たちは、世界中に平和が広がることを願っています。
そのためには、すべての人が手を取り合う必要があります。
さあ、心をつないで、平和の風をともに送り出しましょう。」

「平和は、私たち一人ひとりの心の中から始まります。
毎日私たちが選ぶ小さな行動——
やさしさを選ぶこと、許すこと、批判する代わりに耳を傾けること、壁を壊して橋をかけること。
本当の平和は、ただ静かなだけではなく、勇気と努力、
そして“たった一つの親切な行いが世界を変える”と信じる力から生まれるのです。」

「私は、“平和”という言葉だけが残る世界で、大人になりたいくありません。」

O miru govorimo že
stoletja, a ga še nikoli
nismo povsem izbrali.
Ostaja le ideja ali kratka
praksa. Svet pa še vedno obvladujeta sovraštvo in sebičnost.

Mi, otroci in mladi, pa si
želimo varnosti in prihodnosti.
Dragi odločevalci, bodite
sprememba, ki jo želimo
videti v svetu in skupaj
delajmo za boljši jutri.

We have been talking about peace for centuries,
but we have never quite chosen it. It remains an idea or a brief practice.
The world is still dominated by hatred and selfishness. And we,
children and young people,
want security and a future.

Dear decision-makers, be the change we want to see in the world and let's work together for a better tomorrow.

Vsak lahko naredi nekaj boljšega
za ta svet. Pred vsakim dejanjem premislite o njegovih posledicah. Imamo prihodnost.
Ni razloga, da je ne bi živeli v vsej polnosti.

Anyone can do something better for this world.
Think about the consequences of your actions
before you take them.
We have a future. There is no reason not to live
it to the fullest.

Dear Presidents of the world,

we are children who dream of a better world — a world with more kindness, respect, and friendship. We are very worried about everything that is happening: wars, poverty, pollution, violence, and the fear that can now be felt everywhere.

We wish people would stop hurting each other, that no one would be killed or injured anymore, and that children could grow up happy, with a home, food, clean water, and free medical care. We want a world where no one is abused or treated badly, and where everyone has the same rights.

We also ask that people stop polluting the Earth, that more nature parks and clean energy plants be built, and that animals are no longer killed for no reason. We dream of greener cities and people helping each other — for example, by giving clothes to those in need, instead of wasting money on useless things.

We think politicians should learn to listen to each other more and truly care about the good of everyone. Only then can we live in a world without war, without weapons, and without fear.

We ask you to listen to us. It's our future — but it's yours too.

Hello!

From Mexico, we greet the children of the world, may our smiles unite us even though, we are so far away, and perhaps, we can never live together physically, due to our economies, our geographical location, our physical conditions. However, these actions and these digital media are a step closer to that common goal of "UNESCO", where no matter where we are from we are united by love, simplicity, tolerance and respect.

Understanding that in the world no one is more than another, that no culture is above another. We like children must work for a more just, more supportive society, with greater and better opportunities in life, work for equal opportunities, for the love of our parents, for the love of our families, for the love ourselves. We must not allow other to influence our thinking if it is for evil.

The use of our conscience will make the bad disappear from our thoughts and that the small seeds that we sow today in our immediate surroundings will transcend for all humanity to become true citizens of the world.

SINCERELY

The children and future citizen in the world.

From Mexico, Children united for PEACE, JUSTICE AND EQUALITY.

From the heart of Baghdad, the palace of civilization and the spirit of hope, we send a message of peace that embraces the sky and touches the hearts of the world everywhere. To our friends all around the world. We send the warmest greetings of love and peace from Baghdad where the spark of human civilization first ignited, from hearts filled with confidence that tomorrow will be better. We are the students of Palestine Secondary School for the Distinguished Boys - Iraq.

We dream of a world where the pen rises above the sword, hands embrace on bridges of respect, and the laughter of children rises above the sounds of wars.

Dear wind, carry our message further... to all the leaders of this world and beyond...

We have been thinking lately how lucky and grateful we are to live in peace, to have our own family, our own home and the opportunity to go to school every day and have fun, socialise and learn.

While we are safe, happy and joyful, many people are suffering, running away from their homes, separated from their families and unable to go to school and learn in peace.

For some children, a safe home and hot meal means almost nothing, but for those who do not have this, they want it more than anything.

From the bottom of our hearts, we wish that every child could now have a chance to live in peace and have a good living conditions.

We will tell you what kind of world we, and probably you live in. A world where we are all equally worthy and where no child, adult or animal, has to live in fear. Fear that is most often caused by war. And why do wars start? Because of quarrels among people and among countries. Sometimes it all starts as a small argument that spreads and spreads and spreads... and in the end is not the heads of state who suffer, but us children and the rest of the innocent inhabitants of this planet.

We want to live in a world where no one deserves to be hurt or exploited. A world no one mistreats people and animals.

We want the Earth to remain as blue and green as it is now. We should stop polluting and let people finally decide what kind of world we want to live in!

So, dear Presidents, stop these actions! What is that you are trying to achieve? Think before you take away someone's rights, their home and their will to live.

Dear adults, listen to us and think fast about what kind of world you want for us, for your children and for yourselves.

We are following you, even if it doesn't always seem like it. You are our hope and our role models!

On behalf of all the children of this world
