UNESCO Participation Programme - funding mechanism

REMINDER

- UNESCO's Participation Programme (PP) is a funding and cooperation mechanism that allows Member States and NGOs in official partnership with UNESCO to request financial support for projects that align with UNESCO's mandate. Projects seeking funding are submitted to the UNESCO Director-General by Member States, through their National Commission for UNESCO, or where there is no National Commission, through a designated government channel.
- The deadline set for the submission of requests is 27 February 2026.
- For more information on the PP: <https://www.unesco.org/en/member-states-portal/participation-programme>

Gift a Poem Campaign

INVITATION

- The Polish National Commission for UNESCO and the Polish ASPnet are inviting all Associated Schools, for the 4th year, to celebrate World Poetry Day on 21 March 2026 by participating in the Gift a Poem campaign.
- So far, schools from 32 member countries have joined the campaign. They will share their experiences during a webinar on 5 March at 2 p.m. CET, which will also introduce this year's campaign theme. You can find national reports from previous editions at giftapoem.pl.

- Please register for the campaign via this link.
- Questions can be addressed to the National Coordinator of Polish ASPnet Małgorzata Herbich: m.herbich@unesco.pl

New publication just released: Education in Colors

NEW PUBLICATION

- Now online ! “Education in Colors” is now released online (in Spanish only).
It is a transformative education framework that uses colors to organize learning purposes, content, methodologies, and assessment. It provides guidance on how to integrate these colors into meaningful thematic clusters connected to local challenges, avoiding fragmented curricula.
- The publication highlights real ASPnet (RedPEA) experiences from Cuba, the Dominican Republic, and Venezuela, including a detailed case study of Comandante Pinares Primary School in Cuba. It also offers a phased implementation pathway using Community Service-Learning and shares lessons learned, recommendations, and strategies for scaling up and sustaining transformative education over time.
 - Read it, download it, translate it and share it widely!

Join the 2nd Edition of the Consultation on the Evolving Right to Education

REMINDER + CALL FOR PARTICIPATION
